

VARJ Colloquium

Wednesday 16 July 2008
Sir Zelman Cowen Centre
Victoria University
Level 2
295 Queen Street
Melbourne
(entrance off Lt Lonsdale Street)

The VARJ Colloquium is an important occasion for the group and all members are urged to be there...bring a friend or colleague as well. The Colloquium has two main purposes. The first is to allow us to meet and get to know each other a little better. To aid this drinks and nibbles will be available. The second is to consider a range of issues that emerged out of the recent very successful conference where, in the final plenary session, ideas were canvassed about what to do next....Committee Members, David Moore and Nigel Polak, have put together these ideas together under five headings as follows:

1. Leadership
2. RJ Movement / Culture Change
3. Systems
4. Values
5. Practice

Using these headings as a guide David will lead us in a facilitated discussions of each with a focus upon the role and mission of VARJ. A copy of these discussion points will be sent separately.

Admission for members is by gold coin donation. Non-members registration fee is $10. Please indicate your attendance by emailing to the address below by COB on 11 July 2007.

Start time is 5pm and we will finish at 7pm.
