New Perspectives on Legal Practice:

The Contribution of Therapeutic Jurisprudence

---

18 FEBRUARY 2019

5.30PM

La Trobe University Art Institute,
121 View Street Bendigo

On 18 February 2019, at 5.30pm, at La Trobe University Art Institute, View Street, Bendigo, the Bendigo Law Association has the pleasure of hosting Bendigo Magistrate Dr Michael King. Dr King will be considering new perspectives on legal practice and the contribution of Therapeutic Jurisprudence.

Dr King will discuss both theoretical and practical techniques that can be used in legal practice. We anticipate a wide-ranging and interesting discussion, with time for questions and answers from the floor.

As well as being our local coordinating magistrate, Dr King is a widely published and highly regarded academic author, with his writing focussed on the impact of the law and legal outcomes on the wellbeing of people.

This free event is targeted at the legal profession and other professionals who work in the social, behavioural and health sciences who have an interest in therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative justice.
